

Crime fighter

Forensic accountants investigate fraud and financial issues in court cases and help lawyers to prosecute criminals who fund illegal activities. They are trained to delve into the figures to spot details and discrepancies that identify criminal actions.

Recommended school subjects

Accounting, business studies

Ability to work overseas

Salary

Average AU and NZ: $95,343<sup>1</sup>

Required study

A Bachelor degree or higher in Accounting, Law, Management/Commerce, Mathematics with a CA qualification

Where could you work?

- Specialist accounting firms
- Legal firms
- Law enforcement
- Government
- Insurance companies

Key skills

- Objectivity
- Attention to detail
- Problem solving
- Inquisitiveness
- Communication
- Diplomacy

Understand the opportunities to specialise in growing fields such as forensic accounting

